Qaddafi Calls for Reagan Trial Over Reported CIA Libya Plan

TRIPOLI—Libyan leader Muammar Qaddafi said yesterday that President Reagan should be put on trial for a reported CIA plan to undermine him that the Libyan leader called "more scandalous than Watergate."

He said that if the report of the plan, as published by The Washington Post, proves true, Libya will retaliate with a campaign of internal subversion in the United States, The Associated Press reported.

"I think this is a serious violation of the law perpetrated by the American president, and I think he should be tried according to American law," Qaddafi told a news conference. The White House did not confirm the Post report but said an investigation was being conducted to learn the source of the leak.

"If it's true, we have to fight," Qaddafi said. "We must subvert America from the inside by using all means possible." He did not elaborate.
